

Reading Planet

This program motivates children to read by introducing them to a world of adventures and fun characters from classic children's tales and literature. Through dramatized readings, games and crafts, children will learn to love stories and books, while learning English at the same time.

- ★ STEAM
- ★ ENGLISH LEARNING
- ★ ACADEMIC SKILLS
- ★ PERSONAL GROWTH

Better Planet

Introduction to Program Objectives

3 to 6 Years old

Once upon a time

- Introduce the worlds of Medieval and the Renaissance literature to children.
- Explore different ways to express yourself, with and without words.
- Show students how stories in the Middle Ages and Renaissance were told through the oral tradition of blind singing.
- Practice English vocabulary related to the stories within a creative dynamic.

Gulliver's Travels

- Introduce children to the world of Gulliver's Travels through adventure and lots of fun.
- Learn and implement English language vocabulary through teamwork games
- Develop concentration, agility, reflexes and speed skills through psychomotor activities.

Alice in Wonderland

- Introduce children to the world of Alice in Wonderland through participatory techniques, English language learning and fun, inclusive games.
- Familiarize classic parts of the story through fun and well-known games.
- Develop teamwork skills and hand to eye coordination.

Introduction to Program Objectives

7 to 11 Years old

Roald Dahl and the Chocolate Factory

- Get to know Roald Dahl, author of popular books like Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Matilda.
- Practice English language reading comprehension through an activity based on the story James and the Giant Peach.
- Encourage imagination and dramatic expression through a role play related to The Witches.

René Goscinny and the Comics

- Get to know the author René Goscinny through details about his life and accomplishments.
- Practice English reading comprehension and listening skills using the first lines of the story Little Nicolas.
- Introduce the famous characters from the adventures of Asterix and Obelix and Luky Luke, through a game incorporating their names and descriptions.

To be or not to be

- Get to know William Shakespeare, the theater of his time and home country.
- Be introduced to his most famous and important works and get the chance to perform them.
- Develop dramatic creativity through games, imagination and bodily expression, allowing the kids to playfully put their new English vocabulary into practice.

Theater Plays

The Talking Book- 3 to 6 Years old

Spikey meets Mr. Book who is very sad because it seems like no one reads anymore. He is worried about the future of books! Spikey, however, isn't a fan of reading... But with the help of his friend Kate and the kids, he finds adventures in a book!! Inside the book, Spikey gets tangled up in the adventure and meets exciting characters like Don Quijote and the friendly family of windmills.

The children learn that books are fun and full of adventure! They will discover that reading expands our imagination and helps us grow as people and learners.

Romeo and Juliet- 7 to 11 Years old

The kids and Spikey travel to the romantic city of Verona, a city where the Montagues and the Capulets are always fighting. When Romeo and Juliet meet in Verona, they decide that their friendship and love is more important than the fight between their families. With the help of the kids and Spikey, the Montagues and Capulets learn how being friendly makes it easier to live happily ever after.

The kids learn, through a fun version of Shakespeare's masterpiece, the importance of friendship and how to overcome conflicts by talking openly and being friendly.